

A wonderful serenity has taken possession of my entire soul like these sweet mornings of spring which I enjoy with my whole heart. I am alone, and feel the charm of existence in this spot, which has been created for the bliss of souls like mine.